Olga Brunner of A Good Daughter to Guest on "Coping with Caregiving" Radio Saturday, May 14 at 3pm EST

Margate, FL - May 14, 2005 - Olga Brunner, founder of A Good Daughter, Inc., based in Margate, Florida (www.agooddaughter.com) will appear on Saturday, May 14th at 6pm EST on "Coping with Caregiving," a program for everyone who faces the challenge of caring for an elderly loved one. The presentation will address options available to sons and daughters taking care of family members who need Caregiving. A Good Daughter allows family caregivers and the professional care giving community to come together and explore ways to be a more productive member of their loved one's care team.

Brunner notes, "This is an important topic because we all need to be aware of the challenges of taking care of an elderly parent." "Coping with Caregiving" is a monthly Internet-only radio program heard worldwide on <http://www.wsradio.com/copingwithcaregiving/>. The program has been expanded to include many aspects of health, aging, family relationships, long-term care insurance/planning and more. Call-in questions are not taken.

ABOUT JACQUELINE MARCELL, the host of the radio program

According to Marcell, "I was so compelled by the heart-wrenching experience of caring for my elderly parents, both with the beginning of Alzheimer's --- I gave up my fifteen-year career as a television executive to become an advocate for eldercare awareness and reform."

RADIO PROGRAM

As the producer/host of Coping With Caregiving for three years, an Internet radio program, Marcell's interviews with over 650 healthcare professionals are archived for free, worldwide listening-on demand: <http://www.wsradio.com/copingwithcaregiving/>. Listen to the LIVE broadcast through via Windows Media Player--a free download obtainable at the top left of the website at "How to Listen") Saturday from 6:00-7:00 pm EST Time, by simply clicking on "Listen Live".

Brunner's community involvement throughout Broward and Palm Beach counties is earning her company accolades. Brunner is determined to communicate the message that caregiving is similar to planning one's own retirement. It takes time, planning, and patience. Anyone who is currently taking care of a loved one, who needs some guidance, should listen to the radio broadcast this Saturday.
